About the International Music Festival of Cantonigròs

It is a Festival of choral music and popular folk dances. The participating groups take part on the different competitions and daily evening concerts.

Confident as we are that music and dance are perhaps the best means of communication which best join different countries, we have taken this way of communication in order to know each other better and also achieve a deeper knowledge of other cultures which have a different history to our own. In this way we are trying to achieve our goal (which may be more difficult in other circumstances) through one of the arts such as music, in the strengthening of friendly links among all the countries of the world, "The hope for peace and well being amongst all nationalities".

Within our possibilities, we shall be arranging that all the groups from outside Catalunya, should be able to share in the life of our village, living together in our homes and taking part in the activities and way of life.

In this way communication between us will have become an effective strengthened reality, and also promote the dialogue between the different groups and public in the campus of the Festival.

We would very much like to be able to invite all the groups who would wish to come but the problem of accommodation will mean a restricted number of participants.

The history of the Festival is an integral part of a great number of families from Cantonigròs, Osona, La Garrotxa, El Bages and La Selva districts, who open their doors and shelter to the participants, who every year increase in number.

La Generalitat de Catalunya gave the "CREU DE SANT JORDI" for its contribution to promote cultural interchanges with countries all over the world, and for the international projection of Catalunya and his music. We have been also awarded with the "PREMI NACIONAL DE CATALUNYA", for our 20 years of continuous activity aimed towards the development of culture.

The Jaume I foundation award the "PREMI D'HONOR JAUME I" recognizing the constant dedication and loyalty service to the culture of the catalan countries. Member of the "EUROPEAN FESTIVALS ASSOCIATION"

We are quite sure that all who have already visited us and taken part in our Festival will have happy memories, just as they will always remain with us the image that each has left with us of their respective culture.
